DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-6,14,18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nevo et al. US 6,320,873.

Regarding claims 1,6, 14,18,19, the claimed first element communicating with CDMA radio access network using CDMA protocol is disclosed by SGSN (Figure 1, element 52). The claimed second element communicating with a GSM core infrastructure using GSM protocol, the first and second elements communicating with each other, whereby use of the CDMA RAN with the GSM core infrastructure is disclosed by GGSN (element 54). The claimed switch is disclosed by GPRS (element 50) for communication between CDMA and GSM networks.

Regarding claims 2-5, the claimed PDSN communicating with CDMA network and SGSN communicating with GGSN and GSM infrastructure is disclosed by PDN (Figure 1, element 48) connected to CDMA network by way of GPRS (element 50) and SGSN (element 52) connected to GGSN (element 54) which is connected to GSM network.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 2666

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 7-13,20-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nevo in view of Forslow US 6,608,832.

Regarding claims 7-13,20-26, Nevo discloses the use of CDMA RAN with a GSM infrastructure. Nevo does not disclose the claimed terminating point-to-point protocol framing from the CDMA and sending IP to GSM core infrastructure in response to selection of IP by user of a CDMA mobile station and initiating packet data protocol context activation including specifying at least one access point name. Forslow discloses circuit-switched bearer employing IP/PPP protocol, packet-switched bearer employing GPRS tunneling developed to carry IP packets directly thereby avoiding PPP and a selection of a particular type of bearer. See column 9, lines 11-37 and column 12. Forslow discloses an HLR (Figure 2, element 42) storing routing information and mapping to one or more packet data protocol addresses as well as mapping each

PDP address to one or more GGSNs. See column 3, lines 48-51 and column 9, lines 11-37. At the time the invention was made it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to modify Nevo to include packet data protocol context activation of Forslow. One of ordinary skill in the art would be motivated to do this for improved routing between the different networks.

5. Claims 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nevo et al. in view of Forslow in further view of Naqvi et al. US 6,545,992.

Nevo et al. and Forslow disclose all of the limitations except for use of cdma2000 1x, cdma2000 3x and CDMA HLR. Naqvi et al. discloses the use of third generation networks such as CDMA2000. See column 1, lines 19-21. At the time the invention was made it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to have Nevo et al. and Forslow use third generation network such as cdma2000 1x, cdma2000 3x and CDMA HLR. One of ordinary skill in the art would be motivated to do so for higher voice capacity and higher data speeds than its predecessors.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-14,18-29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant argues reference Nevo et al. does not disclose a packet data service node element communicating with CDMA RAN and service node communicating with GSM.

Art Unit: 2666

Examiner contends Nevo et al. discloses GPRS (Figure 1, element 50) with SGSN (element 52) communicating with CDMA network and GGSN (element 54) communicating with packet data network.
